

MEMO

Occasionally, we may take photographs of the children at Provo Christian School. We use these images as part of the School displays, such as Records of Achievements to celebrate your child's progress. We will also use them on our School website and Facebook page.

From time to time, our School may be visited by the media who will take photographs or film footage of an event. Children may appear in these images, which may sometimes be published in our local newspapers or on a website.
